And to this day, Rito has yet to release such an amazing soundtrack or login screen. This will forever go down in the League of Legends history as the single, most spectacular login screen they will ever release. Praise be URF!

My Chinese friend said in China the general public found it so cool that they just play it in shopping malls and shops and all that.

This is my favorite login screen. Everything is perfect, the picture, the song, and even the name. Planet urf instantly tells you that its a crazy place just like the game mode.

Been playing league of legends since the week MF came out. Yeah, I believe it was back in 2009 possibly 2010. And nothing brought me more joy than Urf in terms of game modes. It has changed quite a bit since then sadly enough to say. But that's because league itself has changed so drastically. I miss many of the old champions mechanics and the way it was played, my only regret in life is not being able to stop time back in season 3.

I remember just all news leading up to April Fools Day was saying they weren't going to bring back URF, and that they were instead going to have NURF (which was like the opposite). And they even had the whole thing working and playable on the PBE. Then April Fools Day came, everyone logged in and was greeted by the most epic login screen to ever exist. As everyone realized, URF was back.
